And secret message, remembering an American war hero whose tormenters didn't know he used their sham video to send a message home about the truth! From ABC news, world headquarters, this is ABC World News with Diane Sawyer! 47 years ago, a grainy black and white film electrified the nation! A Prisoner of War in Vietnam forced to seat with his captors for a sham video! But in Morse Code, he blinked out a secret message for the world! Jeremiah Denton died today. One of the heroes who reminds a new generation what courage and country really mean. ABC's John Donben has our Person of the Week.

When he walked into that room 48 years ago, he had been sadistically beaten and starved. And now seating, he was about to be used for propaganda! Jeremiah Denton was with the navy in 1965 shot down over North Vietnam! He survived. But given the brutality of his captors, getting out alive seemed unlikely! "I found that if they would just apply one kind of pain to me, I could achieve unconsciousness I could last!" But when the North Vietnamese put him on camera, they wanted him talking about how good the treatment was, which he did, if you listen to the words! "I get adequate food and adequate clothing!" But his eyes were telling a different story, the truth! Because watch out he blinks for an unusually long moment, then again 3 long blinks! And then a short and a long and a short blink. And what that was! Look closely was Mores Code! One long equals T, 3 longs equals O, short long short R and on he went, spelling the word TORTURE! Bold and genius! It was the first confirmation US navy intelligence received that POWs were being tortured! But when Denton was finally released near the war's end, the public still did not know even as he was the man chosen to speak that day! "We are profoundly grateful to our commander in chief and to our nation for this day! God bless America!" Jeremiah Denton lost nearly 8 years of his life as a Prisoner of War. The good news is the rest of it was rich and rewarding and lasted a good long time until today! This father of 7, grandfather of 14, great grandfather of 6 was 89.
